

Sara's statement accessory

Lipstick, check. Handbag, check. Watch, check. Matching shoes, check. A phone that complements all of this, check. She is used to turning heads, setting the ramp ablaze, and firing up trends. For Sara Ali Khan, style is everything, and there is no exception when it comes to her phone. But the thing that makes it even more flaunt worthy is the camera. "For me, camera and design are the two most important aspects in a smartphone. And the Vivo S1 is the perfect amalgamation of both these aspects. It's not always about looking good yourself, but also about making other things look great. And no one does it better than the Vivo S1," said Sara.

An inspiring tale of India's first interplanetary space mission

On November 5, 2013, India created history by becoming the first country in the world to succeed in a Mars mission in its maiden attempt. So, who are the people behind the country's first interplanetary mission? And how did they achieve this commendable feat? Director Jagan Shakti's Mission Mangal attempts to answer these questions. As the story unfolds, every team member will be seen finding simple solutions to complex problems, using a combination of home science techniques and daily lifehacks. The story highlights the fact that Indians can make even seemingly impossible tasks possible, in ways the world cannot imagine. The film, which has been co-produced and co-written by R Balki, features an impressive ensemble cast — Akshay Kumar, Vidya Balan, Taapsee Pannu, Sonakshi Sinha, Kirti Kulhari, Nithya Menen and Sharman Joshi — who portray real-life space science heroes. While talking to us recently, Akshay was all praise for his leading ladies. He said, "The women in Mission Mangal are the heroes of the film. They have taken it to another level. The stage is theirs. I am just standing behind them and applauding their achievements." Mission Mangal, presented by Fox Star Studios, and produced by Cape Of Good Films, Hope Productions and Fox Star Studios, releases on August 15.
